Alf Sanderson appointed Vice-President

Vancouver, B.C.—(March 10, 2006) — NAI Commercial is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr. Alf Sanderson as Vice-President – Business Advisory Practice.

Over the past fifteen years, Alf has focused his brokerage practice on mid-size businesses, including both capital market activity and private enterprises. He has successfully completed transactions in various market sectors including manufacturing, retail, transportation and utilities. In this newly created position Alf leads a team of dedicated professionals assisting businesses to expand through acquisition or help entrepreneurs and family owned enterprises develop exit strategies for themselves.

NAI Commercial has developed a large Business Advisory Practice, specializing in helping owners of midsize business acquire or sell business in all industry sectors throughout Western Canada. Our Business Advisory Practice offers consulting services to business owners wishing to develop a succession plan or position their business for the highest valuation for sale.
